Over 2,000 potential employers in one place.

In the fight to win new employees, every national and international company searches for the best of the best. Good for you! This means that in the best case, you can choose between several career options. No matter whether you are a young professional or a future graduate.

Come to Düsseldorf for the High Potential Days of the piping and tube, wire and cable industries!

wire and Tube are the unrivalled leading international trade fairs in their segments. More than 2,000 national and international exhibitors are in Düsseldorf to present themselves along with the newest technologies, cutting edge manufacturing machines and product innovations live in action.

The diversity and momentum of both specialised trade fairs make them the central hub for a growing business with a sustainable future. This is because issues like ecoMetals and the use of and transport of hydrogen are keeping the players within both industries busy, too – and need smart “fresh minds” like yours!

You have the chance to set great things in motion, because wires, cables and/or pipes and tubes are important elements in a wide range of industries:

- Automotive industry
- Iron, steel and non-ferrous metal industry
- Electrics and electronics
- Construction industry
- Measurement and control technology
- Chemical industry
- Heating, oil, gas and water supply
- Retail, crafts and services

One event, many opportunities:
